November 1996
Articles of Incorporation
Of Celebration Circle of San Antonio

ARTICLE 4

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

The Celebration Circle is an open, inclusive, and safe community focused on the sacred arts.

We believe in the wonders of contemporary and ancient mysteries of life; we celebrate reverently and joyfully their every expression.

We believe in the power of sacred art, stories, songs, silences, and signs. We honor the symbols of all major spiritual traditions, and choose to include those elements that enhance our worship and enrich our common culture.

We educate ourselves and others about the new expressions of the sacred arts created among us.

We affirm the importance of every person’s spiritual journey, and encourage each other to search for and find that which gives hope and strength to life.

We acknowledge the worth of community, and meet regularly to deepen our humanness and humaneness.

We believe in the interdependent web of all existence, and in the sanctity of our place of dwelling, this planet Earth.

We call upon individual participants and this corporate entity to perform good works and to give generously of our energy, material resources and talents toward the realization of social well being, justice and mercy in all affairs.